Locations

ZANZIBAR

The Portuguese invasion in the late 16th century ended the golden age of the Swahili Coast, but Omani Arabs regained control less than a century later. Today, old Stone Town retains its historic charm with winding streets, high townhouses, the sultan's palace, the House of Wonders, the Portuguese fort, merchants' houses, and Turkish baths. Visitors can enjoy spice tours to plantations growing cloves, vanilla, nutmeg, and cinnamon. Zanzibar's coastline boasts some of the world's best beaches, varying by location. The east coast has coral reefs and sand bars, revealing pools of marine life at low tide. The north offers smooth, white-sand beaches ideal for ocean swimming. Stone Town dominates the west coast, with nearby Mangapwani and Bububu beaches accessible within half an hour. Day trips to Chole Island Marine Park, Prison, Grave, and Snake Islands offer refreshing breaks. The south coast features the Menai Bay Conservation Area, a sea turtle protection site. The southeast coast, accessible via roads through Jozani Forest, is home to rare Red Colobus monkeys and other wildlife.

WHAT TO PACK FOR SAFARI IN TANZANIA

It will be hot on most safaris, so carry sun protection and wear light, neutral-colored clothing. These natural colours will help you blend in with the surroundings. Because temperatures might decrease at night, long-sleeved shirts and long pants are essential. Wear a variety of layers that you can remove or add as needed.
Don't over pack because the amount of luggage you can bring on the smaller planes and safari vehicles is limited. In any case, you'll probably only utilize around half of what you brought. It's worth noting that there are some larger grocery stores and pharmacies in Arusha where you can still get a lot of products if necessary.
